Art Unit: 2111

1. Claims 1- 6 are presented for examination.
2. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d). The certified copy has been filed in parent Application No. 09/663,379, filed on 9/15/2000.
3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed. The examiner believes that the title of the invention is broad. A descriptive title indicative of the invention will help in proper indexing, classifying, searching, etc. See MPEP 606.01. However, the title of the invention should be limited to 500 characters.
4. The drawings filed on 8/20/03 are acceptable by the examiner. However, direct any inquiries concerning drawing review by the USPTO draftsman to the Drawing Review Branch at (703) 305-8404.
5. The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification. Furthermore, all claims should be revised carefully to eliminate all grammatical errors and antecedent basis problems.
6. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Art Unit: 2111

7. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-8 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,647,461. Claims 1-8 of U.S. Patent No. 6,647,461 contain all elements of claims 1-6 of the instant application and as such anticipate claims 1-6 of the instant application. The claims are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording. This is a double patenting rejection.

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

9. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US Patent 6,496,951 issued to Tuccio.

As per claim 1, the reference of Tuccio teaches, “a plurality of controllers” in Fig. 1, elements 20_o–20_g; “a plurality of disk drives connected to said controllers” in Fig. 1, elements 14_i–14_g; “wherein each of said controllers includes a first interface connected to a computer” in Fig. 1, element 12; “a second interface connected to said disk drives” in Fig. 1, elements 22_o–22_g; “first memory connected to said first and second interfaces” in Fig. 2, element “shared resources”; “wherein said first memories of said controllers are interconnected by a first communication line” in Fig. 1, communication lines between I/O adaptor and the host computer.

As per claim 2, the reference of Tuccio teaches, "wherein said second memories of said controllers are interconnected by a second communication line" in Fig. 1, communication lines between I/O adaptor and the host computer. See also Fig. 1, cache memory 18.

As per claim 3, the reference of Tuccio teaches, "wherein said first memories are shared memories, and said second memories are cache memories" in Fig. 2, element "shared resources" and Fig. 1, cache memory 18 respectively.

As per claims 4-6, the claims are rejected for the same reasons as discussed in the rejection of claim 3 with the exception of inserting switches in connection mechanism. However, the reference of Tuccio teaches the feature in Fig. 14, element 102 and col. 11, lines 30-31.

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Applicant is urged to consider the references. However, the references should be evaluated by what they suggest to one versed in the art, rather than by their specific disclosure.

The prior art submitted by applicants has been considered by the examiner and made of record in the file. Applicants are reminded that each individual associated with the filing and prosecution of a patent application has a duty of candor and good faith in dealing with the Office, which includes a duty to disclose to the Office all information known to that individual to be material to patentability as defined in 37 CFR 1.56. Applicants are advised to submit any information material to patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
